October Meeting

Chaplain Col. John Brinsfield's program on "Faith in the Fight", focusing on Civil War Chaplains, gave those attending a new understanding and respect for the men who served as chaplains. His knowledge and research on the subject has also brought to light the significant role the chaplains played in shaping the future leaders on both sides during their pre-war education.

Our thanks again to Chaplain Colonel Brinsfield for an excellent program.

Stealing the General

At our November meeting, Round Table Member, Russell Bonds, will receive the Richard Barksdale Harwell Award of the Civil War Round Table of Atlanta for his book, Stealing the General: The Great Locomotive Chase and the First Medal of Honor. Russell will also be our featured speaker and his program the subject of his book.

Richard Barksdale Harwell Award

Each year the Civil War Round Table of Atlanta confers the prestigious Richard Barksdale Harwell Award for the best book on a Civil War subject published in the preceding year. However, some members may not know who this coveted award is named for or how it came about. Having been familiar with the Civil War Round Table of Chicago, Richard Barksdale Harwell was responsible for conceiving the idea of a Civil War Round Table in Atlanta. In November 1949, Richard Harwell hosted a dinner at his home attended by Franklin Garrett, Beverly DuBose, Jr., Carl Forrester and Wilbur Kurtz to discuss the formation of a Civil War Round Table. As a result of that gathering, the first meeting of the Atlanta Civil War Round Table was held at the Piedmont Driving Club on December 10, 1949. Richard Harwell was issued membership certificate No. 1 and elected its first President. Prior to completion of his term, he relocated to Chicago to become the Secretary of the College Library Association. The award named in his honor was created in 1989, following his death on March 9, 1988, and has been awarded on an annual basis since.

The Richard B. Harwell Book Award Committee consisted of Jim Bogle, Ron Hudgins and the late Tom Watson Brown. A list of previous winners follows on the next page.

Dues are Due

If you have not paid your dues ($45.00) for the 2007 - 2008 Campaign Year, contact David Floyd immediately to maintain your membership.

New Nametag Cabinet

Thanks to Jim Mountz for procuring the Round Table a new cabinet to organize and store our now 300+ nametags.

Aussie Expedition

The Round Table's new, self-appointed Ambassador to the Outback, Gordon Jones, has made contact with kindred souls down under.

Gordon presented the program at the Melbourne [Australia] Civil War Round Table in September. Gordon's topic was on the Atlanta History Center and the Wray Collection. Gordon extended the best wishes of the Atlanta Round table and left the group with one of our speaker mementos.
